$5 Billion Federal Deficit Predicted In Budget Report

Friday March 24 1961

lke's Figures Found To Be

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Kennedy broke the bad budget news to Congress today-two years of red ink financing for an apparent combined deficit of $5 billion, sending the national debt to new records.

In a special budget message, Kennedy discarded as "over-optimistic" the January estimates of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, who forecast a slim $80 million surplus this year and a $1.5 surplus in fiscal 1962, start-1962, starting July 1.

There is no surplus in the inherited Eisenhower budget for 1961, Kennedy advised Congress. It is "over $2 billion" out of balance, he said. The actual estimate is $2.2 billion. It means the debt limit must be raised again, the President said.

The surplus heralded for fiscal 1962 has become a $1.8 billion deficit on the civilian side alone, Kennedy announced. He said the Eisenhower administration, which never admitted there was a recession, based its revenue estimate on "a much rosier econ-

Officials said Kennedy's military program, plus revised estimates of the cost of defense programs, will send the total 1962 deficit beyond $3 billion and swell the public debt by mid-1962 to a record of about $290 billion. Nowhere in this message was there the slightest indication of a possible temporary tax cut to combat the business slump. As Eisenhower had done, Kennedy asked a $843 million postal rate increase to eliminate the Post Office deficit.

The President's defense program is due to reach Congress next week. Today's 6,000-word message dealt only with civilian matters. Many paragraphs were devoted to documenting Kennedy's pledge-made in his State of the Union message—that his program would not unbalance the budget "of and by themselves."

"It is my determined purpose to be a prudent steward of the public funds-to obtain a dollar's worth of results for every dollar we spend." the President said.

His 1962 budget is precisely balanced at $83.2 billion of income and outgo, Kennedy said, if the Eisenhower estimate of defense spending and tax collections is accepted. But a "more realistic" judgment of the impact of the business slump reduces receipts to $81.4 billion, he added.

The 1962 fiscal figures in brief: outgo, $83.2 billion; income $81.4 billion. The totals compared with Eisenhower's proposed $80.9 billion of outlays and proposed $82.3 billion of revenues.

Patched-Up Minimum Wage Bill Nears Vote in House

WASHINGTON (AP)-The Dem- | Vinson, D-Ga., who apparently ocratic leadership steered a holds the key to success of the patched-up minimum wage bill toward a vote today in a sharply divided House.

The compromise measure retains the two-step raise from $1an-hour to $1.25 requested by President Kennedy but makes major concessions to the opposition in the field of new coverage.

It was put together Thursday in a dramatic last-minute huddle in the office of Speaker Sam Rayburn while the debate raged on the House floor.

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg and White House aide Lawrence O'Brien took part in the hastily called conference with Rayburn, Rep. Adam C. Powell, House. That would have kept the D-N.Y., chairman of the House Labor Committee, and Rep. James Roosevelt, D-Calif., floor leader for the bill.

DiSalle Details

Governor Says Bill Preys on 'Misery'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) - Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has vetoed the Ohio jobless benefits extender bill, which he says "was born of an attempt to take advantage of the misery of the people."

Majority Republicans in the legislature lack the three-fifths vote needed to override the veto. The bill would have given Ohio's jobless an extra 13 weeks of compensation after they had exhausted the regular 26-week benefit period. Democrats said a number of provisions in the Republican-sponsored bill "crippled" it.

However, all hope is not gone for the state's long-time unemployed. President Kennedy is expected momentarily to sign a federal benefits extender bill which will give an extra 13 weeks of benefits to the unemployed. Donald B. Leach, Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation administrator, will be on hand in Washington to sign an agreement with the federal government. This will permit Ohio's jobless who have exhausted their benefits to start filing for government checks about April 10. Payments probably will start April 17.

DiSalle, in vetoing the state bill, said that when the unemployment situation started to become serious last November he felt "there was no sound reason for opposing the extension of unemployment benefits." But soon after the legislature convened in January, he said, the lobbies "devised a 'Scrooge-like' approach, hoping that the needs of the unemployed would be so great they would accept any modification of the law suggested, in order to win an extension."

The lobbies, he added, "wanted to secure repayment by severely limiting the permanent provisions of the permanent law."

W. B. Wood, director of Ohio Agricultural Extension Service, announced the retirement during a recognition luncheon Thursday for 4-H Club advisers.

As 4-H leader, Harshfield has guided activities of the state organization which has a membership of more than 83,000 boys and girls. During his tenure club membership climbed more than 13,000 compromise effort. Southern Democrats and Republicans have lined up almost solidly against the administration's original bill. If Vinson supports the compromise the leadership hopes enough Southerners will follow him to put it over.

Vinson left the conference in Rayburn's office early and refused to disclose his stand. He asked for a copy of the compromise for further study.

Vinson earlier had agreed to another compromise plan in the furious backstage maneuvering that has marked the course of the minimum wage bill through the 25-cent wage increase but cut new coverage to 1.4 million persons under an entirely different ap-

William Bergen, husband of the Cincinnati murder victim, has disclosed in Washington that two Ohio patrolmen questioned him about two weeks ago.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, questioned frequently by newsmen about the case, says only that the investigation in the death for which Mrs. Edythe Klumpp was convicted is still being made and that he is awaiting a patrol report.

Mrs. Klumpp, originaly sentenced to death for the 1958 slaying of Mrs. Bergen, was saved from the electric chair last January when Gov. DiSalle commuted her sentence to life imprisonment. At that time the governor said that any further action in the case-even a possibility of a pardon for the woman-would have to await further investiga-

Mrs. Klumpp had told the governor that Bergen shot his wife while they sat in Mrs. Klumpp's car in a Cincinnati park on Oct. 30, 1958. A transcript of the governor's talk with Mrs. Klumpp while she was still under the death sentence quoted the woman as saying she had then helped Bergen douse the body with gasoline and burn it at Lake Cowan in Clin'sn County.

The actual total of payments under the bill will depend on the course of the national economy during the coming months-on how many long-term unemployed there are

It provides additional payments up to one-half the duration of the original benefits. This provision sets the maximum at 13 weeks, since the longest basic state program is for 26 weeks.

The unemployment compensation payments are made by the states. The federal government will, however, turn over to the states the money needed for extended payments.

With the aim of getting the money back for the U.S. Treasury, the bill provides for a special .4 of one per cent increase in the payroll tax paid by employers. This will be effective on wages paid during the two years starting next Jan. 1.

The basic tax will become 3.5 per cent on payroll. Existing arrangements under which the states reduce the tax for some employers with records of stable employment are not changed.

The Treasury advances to the states, as provided in the bill, are to be repaid out of the yield of the extra .4 per cent payroll tax levied nationwide

The Senate Finance Committee reported that a minority of the states-those with heaviest unemployment-would obtain more in benefits than they would pay in tax. Among these states named were Michigan, New York, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, New Jersey,

Alaska, Ohio and West Virginia. As the law was enacted, there is no certainty as to how the individual states will fare as to money received versus money to be paid in taxes by the employers in that

The amount received will depend on numbers of long-term unemployed. The amount employers will pay in extra taxes will depend on payroll totals in the twoyear period the higher tax is to be levied.

Offerings Due To Run From Light to Heavy

NEW YORK (AP) - Network television, while moving inexoriably toward the summer season or re-runs, is still coming up with hours of special interest. The next few days are particularly full and varied, ranging from opera to a documentary showing the West

Tonight, the entertainment highlights are on the light side. There is NBC's new "Five Star Jubilee", featuring country style and pop music, making its bow (8-8:30 Eastern Standard Time) and later the bi-weekly and popular "Sing Along with Mitch" (9-10) on the same network

Small fry will be particularly interested in NBC's Saturday night special (7:30-8:30), a performance by the Bertram Mills Circus of London, with Joe E. Brown hosting.

The NBC Opera company will be seen and heard in a two-hour ris Godunov" on Sunday (3-5). It will be followed on the network Songs" (5-6) with Edie Adams and Robert Goulet. Then, still on NBC, there is an East Hall of Fame drama, "Give Us Barabbas," a story about the trial of Jesus, with James Daly in the title role (6:30-8)

Monday night the Danny Thomas show is worth a special look (CBS, 9-9:30)-an episode featuring Joey Bishop, and made as a pilot for a series under consideration for next season. Tuesday night NBC has a Project 20 documentary, "The Story of Will Rogers" (9-10) and ABC has a study of the Kennedy administration on its "Close-Up" series

Gary Cooper is narrator and illusion-blaster Wednesday night on NBC's "The Real West," a study of the years between 1849 and 1900 which apparently discounts the legends of the fastest guns.

Rudolph Valentino and Vilma Banky are stars of Thursday night's "Silents Please" (ABC, 10:30-11), a condensed version of "The Eagle."

in medical history Authorities at Deborah Hospital said Joyse was in good condition with a newly inserted plastic wall in her heart. She will be discharged in two or three weeks. Doctors said she would not have lived past her teens if she had not been operated on. The girl at first was believed to have a hole in the wall between the two upper chambers of her heart, but when the operating team opened Joyce's chest last Friday they discovered two distinct heart defects, each of which was extremely rare.

There was no wall between the upper chambers of her heart, so that instead of having a normal four-chamber heart, the girl had two normal lower chambers and a single upper chamber.

The second defect was a condition known as total anomalous pulmonary venous drainage. In a normal heart, two veins from each lung bring blood to the left side of the heart. In Joyce's case, the four veins had come together to form one blood vessel that entered the heart on the right side.

Exactly 55 years ago, he played in the circus for the last time. Yet the circus has followed him through his long and distinguished career. He has done plays and movies about the big top. He starred in a circus TV show for a year. And Friday night he will host an NBC special depicting the famed Bertram-Mills Circus of a good time. And I do."

Joe served four seasons with a number of under-tent shows, starting before he was 10. The first time he ever set foot under the big top was when he reported to work in Kansas as one of the Flying Ashtons.

"It was the first time I had ever done trapeze work at 40 feet high," he recalled, "We had always practiced at 16 feet. The height didn't bother me. But I had trouble concentrating on the flying. I was too busy watching the clown down below.

Joe's days with the Flying Ashtons came to an abrupt halt when he was 13. After the circus season the act played vaudeville. He was appearing at the Haymarket Theater in San Francisco on a memorable date - April 18, 1906. He was shaken out of bed by the earthquake and lived in a park for two days before escaping to Oakland by tug boat. He headed back to his Toledo home, the aerialist days over.

Joe laments the passing of two institutions: 1. The circus parade -"It created excitement in a town, a great thrill for kids like us who couldn't afford admission;"

2. The big top-"The circus doesn't sound the same when it isn't under canvas; especially when it was wet, that tent would echo with the most beautiful sound you ever heard."

stopped for the time at least. But the Treasury is still knee deep in an old-time problem: need for more cash now to meet rising bills. And the success of its first modest effort to stretch out the maturity of the federal debt is still to be seen, while the major long-term problem is still very much with it.

The trick is to bring long-term interest rates down as an aid to economic recovery while keeping short-term rates high enough to discourage investors from sending their idle money aboard for better returns.

The results can affect such everyday things as the cost of financing your new home, the charge for floating bonds for a new school, the cost of borrowing for business activity, whether short-term to meet the current payroll or long-term to expand the plant. Also at stake is the chance of big investors and corporatons making a fast buck in toreign money markets.

Many bankers concede the initial success of the attempt to nudge long-term rates down and keep short-term ones fairly steady. But they maintain that demand and supply forces in the money market itself had a lot to do with it. And they insist that

By Sam Dawson

But still more of the drop in costs perhaps is due to a decline in dscounts asked by lenders. And bankers say the reason for this is that the demand for mortgages eased at a time when the supply of money for lending was increasing from natural causes. When it became easier to find money for mortgages, it was harder to get discounts.

New corporate bonds can be sold now at rates one-fourth to one-half per cent lower than at the start of the year.

Short-term money rates have either held firm or risen a bit with modest fluctuations in the Treasury's shortest-term bills.

Financial circles are watching the Treasury's moves in the money market. It will seek $100 millon in new cash Monday and from $1 billion to $1.5 bllion in new money a bit later on.

Its move to stretch out the federal debt by offering medium term securities for some maturing in a year or so may have met with modest success, bankers feel. But the huge amount still coming due this year and next hangs over it - and over the money market.

Do you gain any real comfort from that old cliche about dark clouds having silver linings? Who can peel a cloud to find its happy lining?

But frustration has been a blessing to many men. It has driven self-centered souls to seek a new fulcrum for life. It has brought men to God . . . acknowledging human failure . . . seeking divine strength.

And as they have found in the Church comfort and courage they have learned anew the spiritual meaning of defeat and victory.

The One that this world crucified is King of kings. Beyond a cross and a crown of thorns our greatest aspirations await us.

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship.

It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

By Kennedy (Continued from Page 1) But the totals didn't mean much with the military proposals still to be heard.

Administration men explained the two-part budget message in this way: Kennedy wanted to show Congress and the country that his civilian programs were not budget-busters, that he has real respect for prudent budgeting. But defense needs get overriding priority, and national security programs won't be cut to fit budget ceilings-as many Democrats claimed was done in the Eisenhower administration.

The biggest increases from Eisenhower's budget asked by Kennedy were these: Agriculture Department, $478 million more: Commerce Department, $48 million, mostly for aid to depressed areas: aid to education $500 million; aid to children of the jobless, $215 million; temporary jobless pay, $440 million, space projects, $85 million.

Today's message was so skimpy on details that newsmen had to draw on other sources-administration aides and Democratic leaders in Congress-to discover many of the fiscal facts which the message itself merely implied. Congress therefore got no explicit statement from the White House on the actual estimated 1962 deficit, on the new estimates of 1961 income and outgo, on the actual appropriation requests (as distinguished from planned spending), or on the outlook for the federal debt. However, the figures were clearly implied and provided on a non-attribution basis by responsible officials.

Kennedy announced the federal debt "will exceed $285 billion on June 30." That is the date on which the present temporary ceiling of $293 billion reverts to the permanent ceiling level of $285

As Eisenhower did annually, Kennedy asked for another debt ceiling increase before June 30. The specific request, he said, will be delayed until May.

From administration officials who met newsmen at a not-forquotation White House briefing it was learned that the debt will reach about $287 billion by June 30, the fiscal year-end.

That exceeds the record midyear debt level reached in 1960, $286 billion. In mid-1962 still another record will be set; the debt by then will stand at about $290

Dayton Falls In NIT Cage Elimination

NEW YORK (AP)-Providence, a go-go-go basketball team, and St. Louis, which cuts 'em off at the pass like the hero of a TV Western, will meet Saturday afternoon in the final of the 24th National Invitation Basketball Tour-

It should be an interesting contrast of styles. They took opposite routes from nowhere into the last round and they'll be meeting for the third straight year in this oldest of all postseason basketball jamborees.

Providence won the first two-75-72 in two overtime periods in 1959 and 64-53 last year. But that hasn't proved anything about the way they play. The two coaches and many neutral observers agree on that point.

"It was a typical game for us. We seem to lose our control when we have a late lead." said Providence Coach Joe Mullaney after his Friars blew a seven - point lead in the last two minutes of regulation time then came back to gain a 90-83 overtime decision over scrappy Holy Cross in Thursday night's semifinals.

"We have to make them play our game. That's the only way we win," said Coach John Benington of the deliberate St. Louis Billikens, whose 67-60 victory over Dayton was their highest score in three tournament games.

That leaves two big questions. Can Providence avoid costly mistakes? Can the St. Louis Billikens From Cage Tests take charge and make the Friars play their kind of game. Losing Coach Tom Blackburn of Dayton thinks the Bills can do it.

"St. Louis is a good, aggressive club that will force any team into mistakes," he said.

Coach Dick Fisher will center the nucleus of his team around four lettermen. They are pitcher Sam Weller, shortstop Jim Wellington, first baseman Dick Kline and outfielder Jim Tootle.

Also back from last year's team are Larry Callahan, Leonard Eblin, Jack Cook, Jerry Francis and Bill Meyers. Coach Fisher in addition has a solid crop of freshmen and sophomores.

Glamor 'Erased'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)-Coach Paul Walker of Middletown's seven-time high school state basketball champions believes some of the glamor and excitement is being erased from tournament play.

At the annual meeting of the Ohio High School Basketball Coaches Association Thursday night, he protested to Commissioner W. J. McConnell against the strict rules governing some of the district and regional events.

Walker, secretary of the coaches' association, said the Middie fans were not allowed to wear 'Middie' hats, use noise-making devices or string banners behind their cheering section, at the Cincinnati Regional.

"Our fans like basketball and they like to cheer our team," Walker said. "They like a good show and I think all these things are a part of basketball."

The best season ever enjoyed by an American League pitcher was 1904 and the pitcher was Jake Chesbro of New York. Chesbro won 41 games.

Views on TV - Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Ty-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) - Television networks, particularly NBC and CBS, are too often victims of misdirected criticism about excessive violence, brutality and the overabundance of Westerns and crime shows, Robert W. Sarnoff, NBC board chairman insists.

"Usually, you'll find that this criticism flares up as a result of Blondie local programming," Sarnoff explained. "Our aim, of course, is to provide a balance-and diversification-of programs. That means something of interest to all segments of the viewing populationand includes Westerns, action-adventure, situatio n comedy and also programs in the cultural and public affairs area.

"But all we can do is offer them to the local TV stations. We offer them 'Meet the Press'-but only about 60 or so stations use it. In one big city, we are getting blamed because the local station didn't carry our 'White Paper' shows on the U2 incident and the sit-in demonstrations, preferring to run a cops-and-robbers show. "We can't force the stations to take our shows. But the networks are an easy target, so we get the blame."

Sarnoff also has this to say about the paucity of dramatic shows on TV:

"I think the character of drama has changed on television. Instead of weekly hours of live drama there will be drama specials. Many of the writers who made reputations have left television for other fields. I don't believe it is possible to keep a high level of drama on a weekly basis: we'd rather have an occasional good Donald Duck one. And I also think that today's viewer is much more sophisticated and critical than he was five years ago. If you ran today some of those dramas he raved about five years ago, he'd laugh them off the air."

Recommended tonight: "Five S'ar Jubilee," NBC, 8-8:30 (EST) -premiere of a new country music show.

GOING TO ISRAEL - Walworth Barbour (above), 53, native of Massachusetts and a veteran foreigr service officer, has been appointed new U. S. ambassador to Israel by President Kennedy. He had been deputy chief of mission at the American Embassy in London.

Action Pledged Perjury Rap To Give Help To Negroes

President To Seek Equal Accommodations At Civil War Affairs

WASHINGTON (AP)-President Kennedy has pledged action toward providing Negroes with equal accommodations when they attend any Civil War Centennial Commission function in the South.

Kennedy told his news conference Thursday night that the commission's decision that it cannot require Southern hotel keepers to provide rooms for Negro representatives can't go unchallenged.

The President said the Civil War group is an official body of the government, sustained by federal funds and its membership filled in part by federal appoint-

"It is my strong belief that any program of this kind in which the United States is engaged should provide facilities and meeting places which do not discriminate on the ground of race or color,' Kennedy said.

He said he is getting in touch with Gen. U. S. Grant III, head of the commission, to see if something cannot be worked out that supports this principle, "because we cannot leave the situation as It is today."

Kennedy gave no hint of what action he might take. But Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr. D-N. C., said in an interview that short of persuading the centennial group not to hold meetings in the South, he doesn't know what the President

The controversy arose when a Negro member of the New Jersey centennial group said she had been denied a room at a Charleston, S. C., hotel for a scheduled meeting of state affiliates April 11-12. The New Jersey unit voted to boycott the session, and the New York and Illinois groups took similar action Thursday.

In a discussion of another aspect of the civil rights problem, Kennedy said he had signed the "strongest federal order that had ever been issued" to make it certain that government contractors and the government itself does not permit racial discrimination in hiring workers.

"This matter of the use of executive authority in order to establish equality of opportunity in all areas is a matter which wil have the continuing interest of this administration," he promised.

On other domestic problems, the President had these things to say: Economy-He thinks there are "evidences of some improvement" in the economy but it is impossible at this time to determine whether the upturn that usually comes in the spring will be sus-

Budget-Revenue estimates will be lower than the $79 billion submitted by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower in January. The slowdown in the economy has brought a "profit squeeze" which has affected the budget

Minimum Wage-He is still anxious for Congress to pass a bill which would advance the minimum wage in yearly steps from the present $1 an hour to $1.25 and to expand the coverage to include an additional four million work-

Foreign Aid-If Congress would approve a five-year program of development loans, it would be providing for "far more effective use of our money."

Interstate 71 Hearing Scheduled at Lebanon

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) - The Ohio Department of Highways will hold a public meeting in Lebanon April 5 to present its proposed alignment of Interstate 71 along 40 miles of right-of-way in Greene, Clinton, Warren and Hamilton counties. The estimated cost of the section of road involved is $35.9 million. Joseph M. Unger deputy director of Division 8, will conduct the meeting.

Evolves from Bribery Trials

(AP) -Nicholas Nigro gets a hearing today on a perjury charge brought by a man who objected to things Nigro said when he testified in the recent bribery trials of Dover gamblers.

Nigro, 28, a rackets figure who was the state's star witness in the trials, was arrested Wednesday on a warrant sworn out by Herbert

County Judge Russell Shear freed Nigro on $500 bond pending

In Columbus, John Gleason, an assistant atorney general who worked with Tuscarawas County officials on the bribery cases, questioned whether the charge would hold up. Gleason said the perjury affidavit contains "nothing materal to the case," and for that reason "it cannot be perjury."

Hines was a spectator at the last bribery trial in which the state sought to prove that Paul Knisely, 52, had entered a conspracy to bribe Dover Mayor Clifford C.

Hines, who identified himself as a friend of Knisely, sad he swore out the warrant because "I just want the general puble to know" the truth about the things Nigro said at the last trial. Nigro was running down the community,

The jury failed to reach a verdict in the Knisely case. However, three other Dover men have been convicted of bribing the mayor not to interfere with gambling.

Nigro cooperated with authorities in all four cases.

Reds To Curb Laos Activity

3. The United States is "earnestly in favor" of international negotiations "which can help Laos back to the pathway of independent and genuine neutality." Specifically the United States supports British proposals to the Soviet Union for a prompt end of the fighting to be followed by an international conference.

As if speaking directly to Khrushchev, the President added on this last point: "We are always conscious of the obligation which rests upon all members of the United Nations to seek peaceful solutions to problems of this sort. We hope that others may be equally aware of this responsi-

Throughout the statement, with which he opened his news conference, Kennedy stressed his theme of hope and desire for a peaceful outcome of the conflict. He appeared to be dealing with the situation on the theory he endorsed when he took office two months ago: "Talk softly and carry a big stick." Officials privately conceded afterward that though he did not talk about it directly, the "big stick" is a vital part of his policy. It is common knowledge in official quarters that military preparations are under way, as exemplified by the sudden departure of the aircraft carrier Midway Thursday from Hong Kong. Kennedy declined to say anything about these preparations at his news conference, though he made no effort to deny them. His purpose in thus playing down the action side of his policy appears to be to avoid the appearance of threatening the Soviet Union or seeming to hurl a challenge. He is reported convinced that if Khrushchev gives the word the fighting will stop in Laos.

George Hartman, city superintendant of schools, said today that the main reason for the cut is that the valuation had increased in Pickaway County. "Since the last valuation, new buildings have been erected, General Electrict has had an addition and so forth, until the valuation has gone up locally," stated the City Superintendent.

"Although the valuation is increasing, so is operating expenses, salaries and enrollment," reported Hartman.
